

ATP Integrated Course

ATP Integrated is a well-structured course designed to train the student pilot with zero or little experience up to the Frozen ATPL and to obtain the CPL/IR/MEP/PBN with APS-MCC, Advanced UPRT and ATP Theory Credit.

Duration	18 months
Entry Requirements	Age — Be at least 17 to submit an application. Education — Be High School graduate or international equivalent English language — Be fluent in English (verbal and written). Non-native English speakers must achieve English Language Proficiency ICAO level 4 Medical — Be able to obtain EASA Class 1 Medical certificate. Background and Selection — Produce a clean Criminal Record Check (CRC) basic disclosure certificate. Pre entry Assessment — Pass CAFA Aviation Selection Process (Computer-based aptitude testing, personality questionnaire)
Course Structure	Total Flight training hours: 220 122 hours on a Single Engine Aircraft – Aquila AT01 and Diamond 40 TDI G1000 (77 hrs +45hrs) 40 hours on FNPT II ALX Simulator 15 hours on a Diamond DA42 Twin Engine Aircraft 40Hours APS - MCC 3 Hours Advanced UPRT Up to 3 hours DA42 Aircraft Use for the Skill Test 750 Hours Theoretical Training - ATPL Theory
Pre entry assessment	The candidate will pass through a pre-entry assessment with the aim to assess his / her personality traits and cognitive abilities which is a necessary condition to become a successful Airline Pilot

